

The Fun Test

1. Which line weighs the most:
a. 8wt Floating b. 8wt Sinking c. 8wt Sink tip d. 8wt Intermediate
e. all the above weigh the same f. all the above are different weights
2. The double haul is purely a distance casting technique. T F
3. If I am casting properly, I should be able to pickup 40 feet or more of line when I am beginning a cast. T F
4. On a good cast, the line and rod tip move :
a. in an arc b. in a straight line c. up then down d. down then up
5. I should only fish in an upstream direction. T F
6. If the fish can see me they are not going to strike. T F
7. If a fish refuses to strike my fly it always indicates that it is being selective. T F
8. The most appropriate trout outfit for small stream fishing would be:
a. 7 1/2 foot 4 weight b. 8 foot 6 weight c. 9 foot 4 weight d. 8 1/2 3 weight
9. If you think you saw a fish rise, the best thing you can do is cast immediately to where you thought it rose. T F
10. If a fish splashes at a fly it means he "missed" it or was just "playing" with it. T F
11. Longer , more accurate casts catch more fish. T F
12. Drag on the fly is not as important if you are sure you have the right fly on. T F
13. If the fish are rising to a hatch of size 18 Blue winged olives, and I look in my fly box, and I see no size 18 Blue winged olives, then the best fly I could fish is a :
a. size 16 Blue Winged Olive b. size 18 Sulphur c. size 18 Caddis d. size 18 Adams
14. 3X tippet material is lighter or thinner than 5X material. T F